WHY SUPPORT STAFF WELLBEING

Supporting staff wellbeing is now recognised as an essential part of any business activity. Poor mental health costs UK employers £33-42 billion a year. Research shows there were no downsides to employers' investing in support for their people. For every £1 spent, employers get £5 back. (Ref: Deloitte).

Building a Culture of Wellbeing

We know that compassionate leadership, good role modelling and active encouragement of staff wellbeing creates happier staff, effective teams and more productive organisations.

By changing the culture of the workplace and actively encouraging stress reduction techniques to become a part of the working day, productivity and work satisfaction increases.

Research

Many employers recognise that they have an obligation to the health and wellbeing of their workforce. Investing in the health of employees can also bring business benefits such as reduced sickness absence, increased loyalty and better staff retention (Ref Physical Activity in the Workplace NICE)

Employers that support employees with their life experience see a 23% increase in the number of employees reporting better mental health and a 17% increase in the number of employees reporting better physical health. There is also a real benefit to employers, who see a 21% increase in the number of high performers compared to organisations that don't provide the same degree of support to their employees. (Ref The Gartner 2020 ReimagineHR Employee Survey)

OUR APPROACH

We offer a range of in person and live streamed classes and workshops all of which incorporate mind-body practices to support good mental health. These can be compact and flexible enough to fit into a working day or can be incorporated into staff away days or CPD training. We can also offer bespoke programmes that can be created to meet the specific needs of your organisation.

Our approach, while based on yoga and mindfulness practices is underpinned by a thorough understanding of the physiology and neuroscience of the stress response. We recognise that we all currently live in stressful world and aim to help you and your employees to understand the impact of stress on individuals and teams, and to create space for safe and supported discussion. We offer practical strategies and tools and help you to create cultures that promote and encourage wellbeing.

DONATIONS & SPONSORSHIP

Get Involved with Edinburgh Community Yoga

We are always extremely grateful to receive corporate donations or sponsorship, all of which go towards helping us to continue to provide yoga and meditation classes to underserved, minorities and marginalised communities free at the point of service.

We have made it our mission to offer yoga to as many people across Edinburgh as possible. We take yoga to the places it is needed most, developing affordable community yoga classes in low-income areas and working with local support organisations.

Our belief is that through the practice of yoga, breathing mindfully and learning to pay attention to the body, individuals can learn skills of self-compassion, acceptance and regulation of the nervous system contributing to their own sense of wellbeing and health and building stronger, more positive communities in the process.
